Available Resources

Getting 'On Line'

Some of the available resources are most conveniently available for those having access to email and internet services. Those who do not have routine access to such services might consider using public libraries or 'internet cafes' to access the following services or to communicate quickly with the Outreach committee or our service office.

If this is impractical please contact the regional Outreach committee by post or telephone and we will do our best to assist you. You may also wish to contact the Fellowship Service Office and request a catalogue and order forms for our literature.

Meetings Information

Online meetings directory

See the <http://www.na.org.au/> for a list of all NA meetings in Australia; follow the 'Meetings directory' link and when presented with the map of Australia click on the required state.

1300 Recorded Meetings Directory

Recorded meetings information for all Australian meetings is available by calling 1300 652 820 for the cost of a local call. In addition to the meetings information this service also provides Phonenumber numbers for those areas which provide that service.

Printed Meetings Lists

Regional meeting lists are printed three times per year. If you wish to have one sent to you by post contact the Regional Outreach Committee and register your interest.

Phonelines

Many NA Area Service Committees maintain Phonenumber services that allow addicts seeking information or help to speak to a volunteer fellow member. You can get the Phonenumber number for the area closest to you by calling the 1300 652 820 national number and selecting the 'Contact Information' option.

Literature Available On-line

The NA World Services website <http://www.na.org/ips/> offers online versions of all Information Pamphlets (IPs) and booklets. These are available for download and can be printed for personal use.

Literature in over 25 non-English languages is also available online at this website. Other languages may have fewer publications available depending on how advanced translation activity has been for that language.

Literature on Tape

Some of our literature, including the Basic Text, It Works and Information Pamphlets (IPs) are available as cassette recordings and/or CDs. Visit the FSO online shop <http://www.fso.com.au/> for a full list of available titles.

Literature in Large Print Format

For those who are visually impaired our service office offers a variety of NA literature printed in a large print format.

Recorded Speaker Meetings and Conventions

Our service office sells a variety of recorded speaker meetings on CD.

NA conventions sometimes record one or more meetings and make them available online at the <http://www.na.org.au/> website for a limited time. Check the website frequently to find these, and other new resources, as they become available.

'NA Today' Magazine

NA Today is published three times per year by the Australian Region of Narcotics Anonymous. It is a free publication distributed through the NA Area Service Committees and the Regional Outreach committee for those in isolation. Please contact Outreach if you wish to receive this magazine. NA Today is also available online at <http://www.na.org.au/>

'NA Way' Magazine

NA Way is the international journal of Narcotics Anonymous. You can access the current issue, and archives, at the NA World Services website <http://www.na.org>
